YOU HAVE READ SO MANY THOUSANDS OF PAGES I'M GOING TO MAKE THIS SHORT AND TO THE POINT. I was told I had to put it in writing so here it is a basic point LEGALLY you have not considered (to my knowledge and the Tampa Bay Times Report.)

The Florida Supreme Court ruled in the ALL FOR TRANSIT against them because the Citizen Board was NOT AN ELECTED BODY. NEITHER IS THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION. At your first thought there is a difference between Money of the Public (ie Customer Money) and Public Money (Government Money) and thus you would question that the Supreme Court would be applicable to the PSC EXCEPT PUBLIC MONEY (ie GOVERNMENT MONEY) is involved thru SUBSIDYS TO LOW INCOME CUSTOMERS (ie from HUD, DGF, etc.) with this view in mind no increase by the PSC should be legal including their deal with DUKE because the PSC being an Appointed Party isn't accountable to the Taxpayers ~~is~~ when it comes to the Government money involved in the payments received by TECO and the other Power Companies.

Sincerely
