Pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes (F.S.), and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, Tampa Electric Company (TECO or Company) requests confidential classification of certain information and motion for temporary protective order filed in the above-referenced docket, dated January 31, 2025.

The Company is claiming confidentiality of its filing under Section 366.093(3)(d), F.S. Per the Statute, propriety of confidential business information includes, but is not limited to: Subsection (d) “[i]nformation concerning bids or other contractual data, the disclosure of which would impair the efforts of the public utility or its affiliates to contract for goods or services on favorable terms.’

More specifically, this information includes actual purchase amounts pursuant to confidential contracts negotiated by and between TECO and certain energy providers. As such, the information in question concerns bids or other contractual data, the disclosure of which would impair the efforts of TECO to contract for goods or services on favorable terms in the future. Furthermore, the Company requests that the confidential information be protected from disclosure for a period of 24 months.

Staff has reviewed the Company’s information and confidentiality request. It is staff’s opinion that the information subject to this request meets the criteria for confidentiality contained in Section 366.093(3)(d), F.S.
