Re: Docket 20250130-WS – Petition for an acquisition adjustment for a non-viable utility, by CSWR-Florida Utility Operating Company, LLC.

Dear Mr. Dose:

CSWR-Florida Utility Operating Company, LLC (“CSWR-Florida”) submits the following responses to Staff’s April 23, 2026 Fourth Data Request.

1. What are the annual operation and maintenance (O&M) savings, if any, Neighborhood Utilities, Inc. (Neighborhood), a has experienced resulting from Central States Water Resources – Florida’s (CSWR-FL) acquisition for the first three years (by year) of its ownership as a percentage of Neighborhood’s pre-acquisition O&M cost?¹

Response: Please see the Attachment “DR 1 – Neighborhood Operating Expenses” for a comparison of the total operating and maintenance (O&M) expenses incurred by CSWR-Florida for the first three years of ownership.

2. What are the annual capital cost-related savings, if any, Neighborhood has experienced resulting from CSWR’s acquisition for the first three years (by year) of its ownership as a percentage of Neighborhood’s pre-acquisition capital cost?²

Response: None.

² For the purposes of this data request, Neighborhood’s pre-acquisition capital cost period is the full calendar year preceding the year of acquisition.

3. Is there any specific tax benefit(s) CSWR-FL (or parent) will avail itself of associated with approval of the acquisition adjustment in this case? If so, please detail the specific benefit(s) and any associated value amount.

Response: The Company is not aware of any tax benefit associated with approval of the acquisition adjustment in this case.

4. Please show the complete calculation of the estimated customer bill impacts on a consolidated CSWR-FL basis and non-consolidated basis, i.e., stand-alone company basis.

Response: Please see Attachment “DR 4 - Neighborhood Bill Impacts.”

Please refer to CSWR-Florida Utility Operating Company, LLC (CSWR-FL or Utility) response to Staff’s First Data Request, filed February 18, 2026 for the following requests.³

5. Please provide a detailed description of all negotiations that led to the final purchase price. Your response should include, at a minimum:
- a. Identification of the party that established the initial proposed purchase price (e.g., the seller’s asking price or CSWR-FL’s initial offer).
 - b. Each subsequent offer and counteroffer exchanged between the parties.
 - c. The rationale for any changes in price during negotiations.
 - d. An explanation of how the final purchase price was determined.
 - e. To the extent available, please provide supporting documentation for each stage of the negotiation process.

Response: CSWR-Florida executed the purchase agreement with the seller of the Neighborhood system on May 27, 2021, almost five (5) years prior to this request. However, the Company completed a review and was unable to locate any documentation regarding negotiations that led to the final purchase price agreed upon for the system.

CSWR-Florida notes that negotiations with potential sellers are generally conducted through verbal discussions rather than through a series of formal written offer letters. In evaluating a prospective acquisition and establishing a purchase price, the Company considers multiple factors, including but not limited to publicly available regulatory filings, compliance and enforcement history, site visits, observed infrastructure condition, anticipated capital investment requirements, and identified operational risks.

Following completion of its initial evaluation, CSWR-Florida communicates its pricing position to the seller. This position reflects the Company's assessment of the system's existing condition, near-term capital needs, and the risks to be assumed upon acquisition. Once the final purchase price is verbally agreed upon between CSWR-Florida and the seller, a Purchase and Sale Agreement is prepared and executed. Please see Exhibit 1 of the Petition for a copy of the executed Purchase and Sale Agreement for the Neighborhood acquisition.

6. In response to Question 29 of Staff's First Data Request, the Utility stated that there were no documented communications between Utility executives/Utility staff and the acquired utility regarding acquisition premium justification. Please clarify whether this response includes communications related to purchase price negotiations.

Response: The Company's response to Question 29 of Staff's First Data Request only addressed communications concerning acquisition premium justification. CSWR-Florida is unable to provide any documentation regarding negotiations that led to the final purchase price agreed upon for the system. Please refer to the response to Data Request No. 5 for more details on CSWR-Florida's purchase price negotiations.

- a. If communications related to purchase price negotiations were excluded from the Utility's prior response, please provide all such communications between Utility executives/Utility staff and the acquired utility concerning the negotiation of the purchase price.

Response: None.

- b. If no communications exist regarding purchase price negotiations, please explain in detail whether any negotiations occurred and, if so, why no documentation exists.

Response: Purchase price negotiations occur through direct communication between CSWR-Florida and the seller of the system. These informal communications happen through verbal discussions, either over the phone or in person, rather than a series of formal written offer letters.

- c. If no negotiations occurred, please explain why the purchase price was accepted without further negotiation.

Response: Please see the response to part b.

Please refer to CSWR-Florida's Petition, page 20 section 3E. Ability to attract capital at reasonable cost for the following requests.

7. Please explain CSWR-Florida's understanding of the term "ability to attract capital at reasonable cost" as described in Rule 25-30.0371(3)(a)5., Florida Administrative Code. In the explanation, please define the term "reasonable."

Response: CSWR-Florida understands the term "ability to attract capital at reasonable cost" as being able to obtain equity and/or debt financing that can provide the capital needed to acquire, improve, operate, and maintain water and wastewater systems. The definition of "reasonable" is being able to find the balance that allows the Company to repay the obtained capital while keeping rates fair and justified for the customers. This balance is important because being able to attract and ultimately acquire capital has allowed CSWR-Florida to make major improvements to the Neighborhood system that brought the system back into compliance with the FDEP while also providing improved operations and maintenance to ensure safe and reliable service to customers of a system that was deemed non-viable before the Company acquired the system. CSWR-Florida has been doing this while continuing to charge the non-compensatory adopted rates previously in place for these distressed systems. As a result, CSWR-Florida has incurred approximately $5 million in net operating losses through December 31, 2025. If CSWR-Florida wants to purchase small, distressed water and wastewater systems, such as Neighborhood, acquiring capital is necessary.

CSWR-Florida has been able to acquire equity capital through its affiliation in CSWR, which is necessary to make required improvements and upgrades to the Neighborhood system in substantial amounts. Whereas the financial results in the years prior to CSWR-Florida's acquisition suggest the prior ownership's inability or unwillingness to access capital to improve the system for the benefit of the customers. CSWR-Florida has received a capital investment of more than $71 million from CSWR.

Beyond its access to equity capital, CSWR-Florida expects, upon the conclusion of its pending rate case, to be able to attract debt capital. To date, CSWR-Florida lacked the net operating income necessary to service debt. Upon the completion of its rate case, CSWR-Florida expects to be authorized rates sufficient to pay its operating costs and to service a certain level of debt.

8. Does CSWR (CSWR-Florida's parent company) have a credit rating? If yes, please provide a description.

Response: CSWR does not have a credit rating.

9. On page 20 of the Petition, CSWR-Florida mentions a $325 million debt facility obtained by CSWR.
- a. Please provide a copy of the documents describing the terms, including the interest rate, associated with the $325 million debt facility.

Response: Please see Attachment “DR 9 – Loan Agreement” for the pages of the loan agreement that include the interest rate.

- b. Please describe in detail of how much of the $325 million debt facility will be allocated to CSWR-Florida. Please include specific dollar amounts as well as percentages of the total.

Response: As of March 31, 2026, approximately $14 million of the $325 million debt facility has been allocated to CSWR-Florida, representing approximately 4.3 percent of the total facility.

10. Please refer to witness Thies direct testimony in Docket No. 20250052-WS. On page 29, witness Thies testified that CSWR-Florida has incurred $3.94 million of net operating losses since January 2025. Have those losses grown, and if so, what is the net operating losses as of March 31, 2026?

Response: Yes, as of March 31, 2026, CSWR-Florida’s net operating losses have grown to $4.9 million for all currently owned systems.

11. If CSWR-Florida is incurring net operating losses, please describe how CSWR-Florida is able to pay the interest expense on its debt.

Response: Like all its other operating costs, any interest expense incurred by CSWR-Florida is paid through funding support provided by its parent company, which provides the liquidity necessary to meet operating obligations, including the timely payment of interest on outstanding debt.

Please refer to paragraph 13 on page 15 of the Petition. Here it states that CSWR-Florida plans to pursue debt financing from non-affiliated commercial sources that would allow it to balance its internal capital structure.

12. Please define the term “to balance the capital structure” as stated in the paragraph.

Response: This refers to CSWR-Florida’s goal of moving toward a capital structure consisting of approximately 50% debt and 50% equity through the use of non-affiliated commercial debt financing.

13. Please describe when CSWR-Florida plans to obtain its own debt.

Response: CSWR-Florida expects to obtain its own debt once its operations are able to support debt service through positive net operating income.

14. Please explain how CSWR-Florida will potentially attract capital at a reasonable cost given it has invested more than $71 million without an apparent return on that investment coupled with net operating losses.

Response: As of the end of the test year in the pending rate case, CSWR-Florida has been unable to source any debt using its own creditworthiness. Commercial banks and lenders generally require that a company’s operations generate sufficient cash flows to service debt. This means that enough cash must be available for interest and principal payments after all daily operations have been funded. Given that CSWR-Florida has already incurred millions of dollars in operating losses and will continue its loss position until sufficient rates can be charged, it is not possible for the Company to currently obtain commercial debt. CSWR-Florida anticipates that, upon the conclusion of the pending rate case, it will have adequate net income to service commercial debt and to begin to balance its Florida capital structure.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide additional information in support of the application. Please feel free to contact our office at your convenience with any additional questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

/s/ Thomas A. Crabb

To the extent a PIK Interest Election has been made, the Loans shall bear interest at the Applicable Rate plus the PIK Interest Margin from the first day of the fiscal quarter ending immediately prior to such Interest Payment Date to but excluding the first Interest Payment Date on which a PIK Interest Election is no longer in effect. Once a PIK Interest Election is made, PIK Interest shall remain in effect for all subsequent fiscal quarters ending during the PIK Interest Period; provided that (i) the Borrower may withdraw a PIK Interest Election by providing written notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to any Interest Payment Date (and on and after such Interest Payment Date, all accrued and unpaid interest (including for the fiscal quarter ending immediately prior to such Interest Payment Date) shall be paid in cash unless the Borrower subsequently makes a future PIK Interest Election) and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (A) if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing on the first day of any fiscal quarter, interest must be paid in cash for such fiscal quarter and (B) no new PIK Interest Election may be delivered at any time during which an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. For the avoidance of doubt, any accrued and unpaid interest which is not subject to a PIK Interest Election shall be paid, in cash, on the applicable Interest Payment Date, in accordance with paragraph (a) above.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time that an Event of Default under Section 7.01(a), 7.01(b), 7.01(h) or 7.01(i) has occurred and is continuing, all Obligations shall bear interest, after as well as before judgment, at a rate per annum equal to 2.00% plus the Applicable Rate.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed and delivered by their respective authorized officers as of the day and year first above written.
