BIENNIAL RULE REVIEW REPORT
REQUIRED BY SECTIONS 120.74(2) AND 120.745(2)(a), F.S.

The Commission, in order to accomplish the requirements of section 120.74(1), F.S., reviewed, repealed or modified our rules over the period of August 2009 through November 2011 in order to ensure that our rules are correct and comply with statutory requirements. The rules on the attached list were repealed or amended during this time period to further the following statutory goals:

- (a) To identify and correct deficiencies;
- (b) To clarify and simplify rules;
- (c) To delete obsolete or unnecessary rules;
- (d) To delete rules that are redundant of statutes;
- (e) To seek to improve efficiency, reduce paperwork, or decrease costs to government and the private sector;
- (f) To promote efficiency, reduce paperwork, or decrease costs to government and the private sector through coordination with other agencies;
- (g) To reduce the impact on small business while meeting the stated objectives of rules through amendment or repeal.

In repealing or amending these rules, the methods listed in Section 120.54(3)(b)2.a.(I) – (V) were considered in order to reduce the impact on small businesses. A copy of the rule summary and statement of facts and circumstances justifying the rule amendment or repeal has been included for each of the rules listed. These documents are taken from the Certification of Adoption submitted by the Commission to the Secretary of State. The information therein provides some background on the effects of the rule amendments or repeals, including the economic impact on small business.

In addition, as part of this biennial rule review, the Commission performed a formal, comprehensive review of our rules with the objective of identifying rules that have become obsolete or unnecessary since the last review, and to identify rules that may be clarified, simplified, or otherwise changed to improve efficiency or decrease costs to the Commission, the entities we regulate, or the consumers we serve. This review has provided the information that will be the basis of future rule changes.

Section 120.74(2), F.S., requires each agency to identify the types of cases or disputes in which it is involved which should be conducted under the summary hearing process described in Section 120.574, F.S. The Commission has identified no types of cases or disputes in which we are involved which should be conducted pursuant to this summary hearing process.

SUMMARY OF RULE

25-22.061, Stay Pending Judicial Review, is amended to delete provisions concerning automatic stay pending judicial review granted to public entities filing of a notice of appeal in administrative actions under Chapter 120, F.S. The amendments state the factors which the Commission may consider in determining whether to grant a stay, under what conditions the Commission may condition a stay, and list the factors that the Commission may consider in setting an interest rate when granting a stay conditioned upon the posting of a bond or corporate undertaking. The rule clarifies that motions for stay shall be heard by those Commissioners who were on the deciding panel for the order being appealed.

SUMMARY OF HEARINGS ON THE RULE

No hearing was requested and none was held.

FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFYING THE RULE

25-22.061, Stay Pending Judicial Review, is amended for consistency with Fla. R. App. P. 9.310, which has been amended to provide that the timely filing of a notice of appeal does not operate as a stay pending judicial review in administrative actions under Chapter 120, F.S., when the state, any public officer in an official capacity, board, commission, or other public body seeks review. The amendments clarify the factors which the Commission may consider in determining whether to grant a stay, under what conditions the Commission may condition a stay, and amend the factors that the Commission may consider in setting an interest rate when granting a stay conditioned upon the posting of a bond or corporate undertaking. The rule clarifies that motions for stay shall be heard by those Commissioners who were on the deciding panel for the order being appealed.

25-22.107
Docket No. 090502-OT

SUMMARY OF RULE

The rule revisions place the Commission in the role of being its own Official Reporter, as of January 1, 2010. This is implemented through the Commission's Web site which provides an electronic database of the Commission's orders. Prior orders are located in the FPSC Reporter, published by FALR. Rule 25-22.103, Orders Indexed, is repealed because there is no need for orders to be "indexed" when an electronic database is used instead; Rule 25-22.1035, Designation of Official Reporter, is amended to make the Commission's Web site the Official Reporter from January 2010 forward; Rule 25-22.107, Plan for Making Orders Available to the Public, is amended to state that copies of orders are maintained electronically at the Commission's Web site; Rule 25-22.105, System for Indexing Orders, is amended to refer to the Commission's electronic database on the Commission's Web site. The amendments also refer to the advanced search feature of orders.

SUMMARY OF HEARINGS ON THE RULE

No hearing was requested and none was held.

FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFYING THE RULE

The Florida Public Service Commission currently has an electronic database of its orders. Thus, there is no longer a need for the orders to be "indexed" and published when an electronic database is used. There should be benefits in saving staff time to reproduce and mail the orders to the publisher and the associated reproduction and mailing costs. Also, consumers, utilities and business entities will know the orders are online and they may obtain access without subscribing to a publication.

Characterizing service restoration requirements as service standards is consistent with Commission practice. Repeat trouble requirements are deleted as unnecessary. These changes comport with the regulatory streamlining focus of this rulemaking.

Rule 25-4.073, is amended to apply to basic residential service only, which is consistent with statutory changes to Chapter 364, F.S. Increasing answer time requirements is intended to allow companies flexibility in managing their call centers, could result in cost savings to companies, and allows acceptable amounts of time to callers. The rule requirement that subscribers not using IVRU be transferred to a live attendant within 30 seconds is deleted as obsolete. Answering time studies are deleted as unnecessary and duplicative of other data submitted to the Commission by companies. These changes comport with the regulatory streamlining focus of this rulemaking.

Rules 25-10.026 and 25-10.111
Docket No. 100380-WS

SUMMARY OF RULE

Rule 25-10.026, F.A.C. requires water and wastewater utilities to maintain records in accordance with the NARUC system of accounts and to maintain those records in an office within the State of Florida. All provisions of this rule have been included within the newer Rules 25-30.115, F.A.C., Uniform System of Accounts for Water and Wastewater Utilities and 25-30.110, F.A.C., Records and Reports; Annual Reports. Rule 25-10.111, F.A.C., requires water and wastewater utilities to bill customers at regular intervals; contains various provisions for pro-rating less than full bill amounts; and requires a minimum of 20 days before a bill is considered delinquent. All of the provisions of this rule have been subsumed by Rule 25-30.335, F.A.C., Customer Billing. Repeal of Rules 25-10.026 and 25-10.111 will prevent confusion or conflict with the more detailed rules in Chapter 25-30, and will eliminate redundant provisions which are no longer in use.

Rule 25-30.0371
Docket No. 100338-WS

SUMMARY OF RULE

The proposed rule amendments separate cases involving negative acquisitions adjustments in water and wastewater into two groups--those in which the difference between purchase price and net book value is greater than 50 percent, and those in which the difference is 50 percent or less. If the purchase price is 50 percent or less of net book value, half of the negative acquisition adjustment is amortized over seven years, and half over the remaining life of the assets purchased. This amortization provides a greater sharing with customers and puts downward pressure on rate base.

SUMMARY OF HEARINGS ON THE RULE

No hearing was requested and none was held.

FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFYING THE RULE

The proposed changes are designed to give more of the benefit of a negative acquisition adjustment to the ratepayers by increasing the amortization period of the acquisition adjustment, especially for those cases in which the systems are purchased at a significant discount. In April, 2009, a case came before the Commission involving the sale of a relatively new utility at a large discount. There was a situation where there was not be as great a need to encourage the purchase of a utility. Thus, these revisions are aimed at balancing the goal of encouraging acquisition with the goal of allowing ratepayers to share in the benefit of a negative acquisition adjustment.
