MMS: Bass, Bethea

(Participation dependent upon the outcome of Issue 1.)

Issue 1: Should the Request for Oral Argument filed by AARP, as well as the Motion and Amended Motion for Oral Argument filed by the Attorney General, be granted?

Recommendation: To the extent that AARP and the Attorney General seek oral argument on the Motions for Reconsideration, the requests should be granted. Staff recommends that oral argument be limited to 20 minutes per side.

To the extent that the Attorney General's Amended Motion for Oral Argument appears to seek the release of information that has been classified as confidential, the request is not timely or proper for the reasons set forth in the analysis portion of staff's April 26, 2004 memorandum. Nevertheless, to the extent that the owners of any information heretofore classified as confidential under Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, are willing to release said information to the public, they are not precluded from doing so.

Issue 2: Should the Commission grant the Motions for Reconsideration filed by the Attorney General and the AARP?

Recommendation: No. The Motions should be denied. Neither motion identifies a mistake of fact or law in the Commission's decision. However, the AG and the AARP have identified certain aspects of the Order that should be clarified or amended, as set forth in the staff analysis. In particular, staff recommends: (1) adding language to confirm that the Commission considered the impact of Section 364.01(4)(a) in reaching its decision; (2) amending the Order to clarify that the Commission delegated to staff the
