Docket No. 080001-EI – Fuel and purchased power cost recovery clause with generating performance incentive factor.

Critical Date(s): None

Commissioners Assigned: All Commissioners

Prehearing Officer: McMurrian

Staff: ECR: Lester, Matlock, Maurey, McNulty, Slemkewicz, Springer

GCL: Bennett, Young

Issue 1: Should the Commission clarify the Hedging Order with regard to prudence reviews of current year hedging results?

Recommendation: Yes. To facilitate such reviews, the Commission should require each IOU to file a Hedging Information Report by August 15 of each year detailing its hedging transactions during the months of January through July of that year. The Hedging Information Report should provide the same hedging information identified through July of the actual/estimated year (i.e. the current year) as is required for the final true-up year (i.e. the prior year) per Section 5 of the “Proposed Resolution of Issues” of the Hedging Order.

DECISION: The recommendation was approved. Staff is directed to hold an informal workshop.

Issue 2: Should the Commission approve FPL's proposed Volatility Mitigation Mechanism to replace FPL's use of physical and financial hedging to mitigate volatility in the prices FPL pays for fuel, commencing January 1, 2009?

ITEM NO.

CASE

6PAA

Docket No. 080001-EI – Fuel and purchased power cost recovery clause with generating performance incentive factor.

Recommendation: No. The Commission should deny FPL's proposed VMM at this time for the following reasons: (1) FPL's petition is premature because the Commission is conducting management and financial audits of FPL's hedging program. (2) FPL has not shown that the VMM is superior to FPL's current hedging practices. (3) The routine of spreading under-recoveries of fuel costs over two years will compromise the Commission's traditional consideration of deferrals of recovery of fuel costs on a case-by-case basis. (4) As addressed in Issue 1, FPL's concern regarding the timing of prudence reviews can be alleviated by extending the period of review for hedging transactions through July 31st of the current year contingent on sufficient and timely filing of hedging information. FPL should continue to manage fuel price risk according to the direction provided by Order No. PSC-02-1484-FOF-EI (the Hedging Order) until such time that the stipulated policy stated in that order is modified. The flexibility extended by the Hedging Order allows FPL to revise its hedging program to affect any changes it deems necessary in addressing fuel price volatility.

DECISION: This issue was deferred.

Issue 3: Should the Commission approve FPL's alternative proposal to the Volatility Mitigation Mechanism to reduce alleged regulatory risk associated with the current hedging program, including the hedging guidelines appearing in Exhibit 3 of its petition and revised procedures for review of FPL's hedging results set forth in Paragraph 19 of its petition?

ITEM NO.

CASE

6PAA

Docket No. 080001-EI – Fuel and purchased power cost recovery clause with generating performance incentive factor.

Recommendation: No. The Commission should not approve FPL’s proposed hedging guidelines because FPL’s alternative proposal is premature and too constraining. FPL should continue to manage fuel price risk according to the general direction provided by Order No. PSC-02-1484-FOF-EI (the Hedging Order), until such time as the Commission modifies that order. FPL’s proposal for revising the procedures for reviewing its hedging results should not be approved. Regarding the review period for FPL’s hedging transactions, as discussed in Issue 1, the Commission should review hedging transactions for determination of prudence through July 31 of the current year contingent on sufficient and timely filing of hedging information.

DECISION: This issue was deferred.

Issue 4: Should this docket be closed?

Recommendation: No. This docket is an on-going docket and should remain open.

DECISION: The recommendation was approved.

APPROVED STIPULATION

Issue 16: Should the Company's projected plan to accelerate the replacement of the existing wood 69 kv transmission system with concrete poles be approved?

Position: Yes, with the exception of any agreed upon changes to the Plan or changes to our Storm Hardening Plan, the replacement of wood poles with concrete poles will continue based on current practice with an average of one pole per year being replaced. The Company has recently provided actual cost estimates based on bids received for the purchase and installation of concrete poles along with actual cost associated with previous jobs. This information verifies the accuracy of the projected cost for pole replacement within the proposal. This revised proposal and the associated modification of the Storm Plan will comply with the storm hardening initiative to address transmission structures.

APPROVED STIPULATION

Issue 17: Should amortization expense be increased by $354,600 annually to collect the projected $7,092,000 total plant cost of FPUC’s proposed 20 year storm hardening project to replace its wood transmission poles with concrete poles?

Position: No, since an average of one transmission pole will be replaced each year, only the rate base shall be increased for the amount of the transmission pole. Based upon recent cost information provided in rebuttal testimony, the increase shall be in the amount of $20,000 with corresponding increases to accumulated depreciation and depreciation expense and a full 13-month average for the test year shall be allowed for recovery. The amortization of $354,600.00 shall be removed from test year expenses.

Position: No, the Company will be able to comply with a 3/6 trim cycle with existing crews and no increase is required, and requests a modification to the Vegetation Management section of the Storm Plan. This includes the modification of items in the Vegetation Management Plan that address “[a]nnual inspection of main feeders to critical infrastructure prior to the storm season to identify and perform the necessary trimming,” and “actively address danger trees located outside the normal trim zone and located near main feeders.” The modification is based upon using the current tree trimming crew level and that the Company will make reasonable efforts if and when tree trimming crews become available to address annual inspection of main feeders and address danger trees.

This issue was previously voted on and approved by the Commission at the beginning of the hearings on February 27, 2008. No additional vote was required.

Issue 19: Should FPUC’s request to increase Account 593, Maintenance of Overhead Lines, by $141,367 per year for distribution of pole inspections from an outside contractor be approved?

Recommendation: Yes. Three contractors provided bids to allow FPUC to comply with an eight year inspection cycle on all wooden distribution poles required by the Commission’s Ten Initiatives Order. The amount of $141,367 submitted by Osmose Utility Services, Inc. should be the cost estimate for FPUC’s wood pole inspections.

Position: Yes. Consistent with FPUC witness Martin's statement, the Company's payroll benefits overhead factor adjustment is overstated. For the NE division, the overhead factor applied was 38 percent of which 12 percent shall be removed for the vacation/leave component, which was included by error. Backing out the 12 percent erroneous factor leaves a proper overhead adjustment of $6,842 ($$10,000 / 38 \text{ percent} \times 26 \text{ percent}$). The necessary adjustment is a reduction to expenses of $3,158, which shall be allocated 100 percent to electric.

This issue was previously voted on and approved by the Commission at the beginning of the hearings on February 27, 2008. No additional vote was required.

APPROVED STIPULATION

Issue 92: Should an adjustment be made to Account 595.3, Maintenance of Transformers, to remove the 2008 test year expense related to the escalated cost of a new transformer added in 2006?

Position: No adjustment is necessary. The conclusions reached in this finding are incorrect and no adjustment shall be made. This is the change-out of a transformer, removing the existing transformer (to be tested and rebuilt) and installing a previously installed transformer (not a “new” transformer as stated in the audit analysis). Unless the removed transformer is to be retired, and/or the installed transformer is being installed for the first time, the entire process is maintenance expense.

The transformer pad is not a retirement unit, and is part of the transformer installation. The accounting treatment of the transformer pad therefore follows the treatment of the installation. In this case it is maintenance expense, which is how it was recorded.

This issue was previously voted on and approved by the Commission at the beginning of the hearings on February 27, 2008. No additional vote was required.

APPROVED STIPULATION

Issue 93: Should the test year outside audit fees be approved?

Position: No. The Company’s over and above increase for external and internal audit fees of $90,675 is overstated and shall be reduced by $42,800. This results in an over and above increase to Account 4020.9233 of $47,875 for the 2008 test year.

Issue 95: Should the Company’s requested increase in supervisory training expenses “to keep managers informed on various issues” be approved?

Position: No. FPUC has requested $21,100 supervisor training expense with $5,486 allocated to the electric division. The utility has spent $7,350 for supervisory training through September 2007. It is important for supervisors to continue their training in ethics, harassment, hiring practices, and other necessary supervisory training. Therefore, the Company shall be allowed to recover the annualized supervisory training expense based on the $7,350 spent in 2007. The annualized expenditure for 2007 is $9,800 ($$7,350/9 \times 12$) with $2,548 allocated to the electric division. Therefore, Account 921.6 shall be reduced by $2,938.

APPROVED STIPULATION

Issue 100: Should an adjustment be made to Other Post Employment Benefits Expense for the December 2008 projection for medical expense?

Position: No adjustment is necessary. In response to Interrogatory No. 135, the utility explained how benefit allocations are done within multiple steps in the payroll journal entry. The reasons that amounts cannot be reconciled within the clearing accounts is that some benefit allocation credits the division expense accounts directly and do not pass through the clearing accounts. Therefore, medical expense shall not be reduced by $120,339.
