Should the Negotiated Contract, as modified by Issue 1: the Settlement Agreement between Florida Power Corporation, Miami Dade County and Montenay-Dade, Ltd., be approved for cost recovery? Recommendation: Yes. The amended energy pricing provisions closely approximate avoided cost. Approval of the Settlement Agreement mitigates the risks associated with the uncertainty of civil litigation which could result in significantly higher cost to FPC's ratepayers. Issue 2: If approved, how should the settlement payment and revised energy payments pursuant to the Settlement Agreement be recovered from FPC's ratepayers? Recommendation: The energy settlement payment of $2,262,868.10 and the ongoing energy payments made pursuant to the Settlement Agreement should be recovered through the Fuel and Purchased Power Cost Recovery (Fuel) Clause. The recovery of payments made prior to their inclusion for recovery through the adjustment clauses should include interest from the date the payments were Should the Settlement Agreement not be approved, made. any necessary adjustments to the Fuel Clause to reflect the method of pricing energy under the Contract prior to the Settlement Agreement should be made at the next Fuel Adjustment hearing.
