Hurricane Michael Hits Home

For those wanting to contribute to Hurricane Michael recovery, the local Red Cross and the Salvation Army provide storm relief opportunities.

With Hurricane Michael's landfall in the panhandle on October 10, many Floridians were directly affected by the storm's devastation. The storm forever changed Mexico Beach and nearby coastal towns, as well as inland areas west of Tallahassee.

Commissioner Gary Clark visited the severely impacted areas, providing support and encouragement to his neighbors in Chipley and its surrounding communities that he served during his tenure with West Florida Electric Cooperative.
