

Get the Latest PSC Information on Twitter

If you stay connected to the latest information via “Tweet,” you can now follow the PSC on Twitter. Receive PSC news releases, events, and other information in real time by following @floridapsc.

PSC Chairman Art Graham said, “With Twitter having grown to tens of millions of users in less than four years, the PSC wants to ensure that consumers following us have our latest and greatest information, instantaneously.”

The @floridapsc Twitter feed can be accessed from the PSC’s homepage, www.floridapsc.com. You’ll need to create a Twitter account to read PSC tweets.

Look for the colorful PSC logo to easily identify Commission news.

The screenshot shows the Twitter profile for Florida PSC (@floridapsc). The browser window title is "Florida PSC (floridapsc) on Twitter - Windows Internet Explorer". The address bar shows "https://twitter.com/floridapsc". The profile header includes the PSC logo, the name "Florida PSC", the handle "@floridapsc", and the location "Tallahassee, Florida". The bio states: "The Florida PSC facilitates safe and reliable utility services at fair prices for Florida's consumers. For consumer assistance, email contact@psc.state.fl.us. http://floridapsc.com". The profile shows 28 tweets, 18 following, 36 followers, and 4 listed. The "Tweets" tab is selected, showing three recent tweets. The first tweet says "Florida PSC is at the Elder Summit in Madison helping seniors learn to avoid cramming and slamming fraud and offering Lifeline Assistance." The second tweet says "Florida Public Service Commission Approves Florida Relay Service Budget: http://ow.ly/52N4a". The third tweet says "PSC Accepts ATMS Settlement Offer for Apparent Lifeline". The right sidebar shows "About @floridapsc" with statistics and "Similar to you" with links to KYPC, LyndseyCruley, and PUCTX. The footer includes "About Help Blog Mobile Status Jobs Terms Privacy Shortcuts Advertisers Businesses Media Developers Resources © 2011 Twitter".