

2022 FMEA Annual Conference

PSC Chairman Andrew Fay (left) participated in the 2022 FMEA Annual Conference on Wednesday, July 13. As a panelist on “The State of Electric Vehicles in Florida,” Chairman Fay shared not only his PSC expertise but also his firsthand knowledge as both an EV owner and an EV adventurer, having traveled the state last year to test Florida’s EV charging infrastructure.

Other panelists included Clint Bullock, CEO and General Manager, Orlando Utilities Commission; Dory Larsen, Electric Transportation Program Manager, Southern Alliance for Clean Energy; and Ryan Matthews, Drive Electric Florida Board Member.
