Florida PSC Reschedules PGS Rate Case Hearing

TALLAHASSEE — The Florida Public Service Commission (PSC) has rescheduled the hearing to consider Peoples Gas System, Inc.'s (PGS) petition for a rate increase due to the expected impacts of Tropical Storm Idalia. Originally scheduled to begin tomorrow, August 29, the hearing will now begin on the afternoon of Tuesday, September 12.

PGS—a subsidiary of TECO Gas Operations, Inc.—is a natural gas local distribution company serving approximately 470,000 customers in 39 counties. As part of the ratemaking process, the Commission conducted four virtual and two in-person service hearings in June and July to allow feedback from customers about PGS's quality of service and rate increase request.

PGS's rate case hearing is scheduled to begin at the following time and location:

Tuesday, September 12, 2023

After 12:00 p.m.

Betty Easley Conference Center
Joseph P. Cresse Hearing Room (Room 148)
4075 Esplanade Way
Tallahassee, Florida

September 13–15 are reserved for continuation of the hearing, if needed. The starting time of the next day's session will be announced at the conclusion of the prior day's hearing.

A live broadcast of the hearing will be available on the PSC's website (click "Watch Live and Archived PSC Events" on our homepage) and may be broadcast on the Florida Channel (check your local listing).
